

HMF filter principle

View from above

- lift-tube is screened to prevent fish from entering. No airstone.
- heater and bulkhead are installed behind the Poret® foam to hide them and prevent fish from going down the drain.
- overflow can be conveniently installed behind the HMF without the need for a strainer.

View from the side

